Thank you, Rebecca, for the update. Glad to hear that the staff has elected to forgo the consent calendar process.

Unfortunately, I will not be in Palo Alto on May 21. I am wondering if the owners of the house that I appealed, Dr. David and Ellen Vanderwilt, at 419 El Verano Ave. (No. 143) could take my place?

Best,

Francesca

The City normally employs a two-step appeal process, in which the City Council is first asked to uphold the Planning Director's decision on its consent calendar, and a public hearing is only scheduled upon request of the City Council. Given the significant public interest in these applications, staff has elected to forgo the consent calendar process and schedule the appeals for a hearing in which the Council may take public testimony and uphold, overturn, or modify the Director's decisions on the nodes.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
