Overnight Warming Location Info Session

Tuesday, November 18
6:30-8 p.m.

Info Session held at
450 Bryant St., Palo Alto
(inside Avenidas )

◆————◆

This cold weather season, the OWL program will be held in a room at the new Bryant Street Community Center at 445 Bryant St (corner of Bryant & Lytton). You are invited to the info session to learn more about the OWL and meet City staff and partner organizations who are overseeing the program.

Overnight Warming Locations (OWL) are a life saving measure to give unhoused individuals a safe, warm and dry place to stay overnight during officially identified inclement weather episodes.
